

THE NATIONAL LAW INSTITUTE UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

The National Law Institute University, Bhopal (NLIU), was established by the Rashtriya Vidhi Sansthan Vishwavidyalaya Adhiniyam, Act No. 41 of 1997, by the Madhya Pradesh State Legislature. NLIU is recognized by the University Grants Commission and the Bar Council of India. NLIU is the Second National Law School established after NLSIU, Bangalore.

The VISION of NLIU is to become one of the best centers of legal education, training and research in the world. The MISSION of NLIU is to develop and nurture the intellect for the betterment of the nation and humanity through Law and Justice. The OBJECTIVES of the NLIU inter alia, are to contribute to the national development by instilling a sense of responsibility among her students, while simultaneously cultivating in them spirit of intellectual freedom, qualities of leadership, imaginative power and clarity.

NLIU has been designing and delivering courses with a view to enhance the ability and capacity of the students, members of the faculty and other participants in avoiding and resolving problems under the framework of law.

Courses of Study

1 B.A.LL.B. (Hons.)

Duration of B.A.LL.B (Hons.) course is five years. There are three Trimesters in a year and each Trimester is of three months duration. In each Trimester, students are taught four core subjects. ## Learning & Teaching Methods

The NLIU strongly believes that in the class rooms the students and teachers create knowledge' rather than the teacher transmitting knowledge to the students. Integration of social sciences courses in the teaching of law courses, case method and Socratic methods are employed in a meaningful way to facilitate the teaching – learning process in NLIU. Moot court competitions, client counseling skills, language and computer proficiency are the regular and vibrant features of NLIU. Constant and persistent endeavors are made to keep abreast with the current national and international teaching practices and to ensure that the curriculum meets the needs, challenges and opportunities of legal education in the twenty-first century.

Full Tuition Fee Waiver & Scholarships

NLIU seeks to encourage meritorious students with a belief that money should not become a roadblock for meritorious students with limited means. To realize this objective the University has instituted the following Scholarships:

- There are two Merit cum Means Scholarships one in the memory of Late Justice J. S. Verma and the other in the name of the University. The scholarships cover full tuition fee waiver for the entire duration of the B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) Course. In the first year of the course the scholarships are awarded to the NLIU students securing highest marks in CLAT. From second year to fifth year the scholarships are awarded to the students securing highest marks (without repeat) in the NLIU examinations of first year, second year, third year and fourth year. To be eligible for the award of the scholarships merit alone is not sufficient to make a student eligible for the award. The annual income of the parents of the students shall not exceed the amount as may be prescribed by the university from time to time.
- Junior and Senior Research Fellowships awarded to the Ph.D. students of NLIU under the Schemes of Ministry of Human Resource Development.
- NLIU also provides a limited fellowship to the Ph. D. candidates particularly during the course work.
